TRINITY TRUMPET

THE MONTHLY NEWSLETTER OF HOLY TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH

A Service of Hope

Advent Lessons & Carols is back! Join us December 8 at 5pm at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church as the "Erie Street Choir" invites two new friends: First Lutheran and St. Mark's Episcopal Churches. Our choir and handbells have been working so hard on creating a beautiful service of hope and anticipation.

Waiting for Christ

What are you waiting for?

I asked that question on social media this week and I heard people are waiting for healing, test results, doctor's appointments, children coming home at night, trips, Amazon packages—to name a few.

We are a people who wait.

We enter this season of Advent, a time of waiting...waiting for Christmas, to celebrate the birth of Jesus, but we also wait for Jesus to come again.

So as we wait, what do we do while we wait? Some of us pace, some worry, some wonder if the waiting will ever end. As we wait this Advent season, we prepare our hearts for the coming of Christ. For you, that may mean decorating the tree, singing your favorite Christmas carols, or preparing your favorite meals. But I also encourage you to prepare your heart for Christ to come again. How do we make way for Christ to come again? Are you in prayer? Are you inviting others to experience the joy of Christmas? Are you reading scripture? Are you attending Advent worship services?

I invite you to take time away from the hustle and bustle of the world to prepare your heart for Christ to enter in.
