A New Collaboration

The Chandler Children's Choir finds its new home here at Holy Trinity after searching across the Valley for a rehearsal space with room to grow.

"We can't wait to be in the heart of Chandler! HTLC has beautiful facilities and have been so warm and welcoming to us," writes operations director Julie Schlarmann.

The non-profit team had great timing, inquiring with Music Director

Charles Zoll just as he was meeting with Nancy Weeks to discuss starting a children's choir at HTLC.

"It's really exciting to consider the possibility of our two organizations collaborating," says Zoll.

The Chandler Children's Choir will rehearse Thursday nights August thru May in our music rooms, sanctuary, and one of the classrooms. They will occasionally utilize the CLC for day camps.

Welcome to Leah!

A special welcome to Leah Greene, our new childcare assistant! An extensive job search led our team to Leah, a junior at Corona del Sol High School.

"We were really impressed by her application," says nursery manager Shelli Sauer. "She was at the top of our list."

Leah hopes to pursue pediatric medicine after high school.

"You can tell she's going to be good at it," Ms. Shelli continues. "She's good with the kids and patient with the kids and she's everything we've been looking for."

You can spot her Sunday mornings helping Ms. Shelli in the nursery.

"She's good with the kids and patient with the kids."

Did you vote? (For Chandler City Council)

On July 24, HTLC hosted the Chandler City Council Candidates Forum sponsored by Chandler Pride. Dozens of Chandler residents filled our sanctuary and asked probing questions of the candidates, ranging from affordable housing concerns to LGBTQ+ issues.

You can find the live-stream from the event on our website.
